

DEMOCRATS RE-NAME WILSON AND MARSHALL

CONVENTION WILL MEET THIS MORNING TO ADOPT PLATFORM

Both Nominations Are Made By Acclamation—
Robert Emmett Burke Casts Only Dissenting Vote to Wilson's Nomination—Bryan Addresses Convention—Delegates Anxious for Vote After Speeches Are Made.

COLISEUM, St. Louis, Mo., June 15.—President Wilson and Vice President Marshall were nominated by acclamation tonight by the Democratic National Convention the ticket being completed four minutes before Friday. Contrary to expectations, however, the convention did not finish its work because the platform was not ready and it will meet again at 11 o'clock Friday morning.

It was announced in the convention that the subcommittee drafting the platform had finished its work but that the entire resolution committee was not assembled to pass upon it and it was not known when that could be done. President Wilson's own plank charging conspiracy among some foreign born citizens for the benefit of foreign powers and denouncing any political party which benefits and not repudiating such a situation was incorporated in the platform just as the president himself had sent it from Washington. It was understood that the president insisted that the plank should be put in the platform in the way he had drawn it.

Kern Casts Speech Aside.

There never was any doubt of President Wilson's nomination tonight, but there was a possibility that some vice presidential booms might be brought out in opposition to Vice President Marshall. They melted away when the convention got in session and as soon as President Wilson's nomination had been made by a roaring chorus of acclamation, Senator Kern who renominated Mr. Marshall, cast aside a long prepared speech and simply declared: "I nominate Thomas Riley Marshall, of Indiana, for vice president."

To President Wilson's nomination, the re was only one dissenting vote, Robert Emmett Burke of Illinois, who came to the convention announcing that he was opposed to the president's nomination, 1,091 to 1.

Convention Hall Filled.

Tonight, for the first time since the convention began the big hall was completely filled. Since the distribution of tickets began the admission coupons have been shuffled about in a confusion of pasteboard and badge speculation. While hundreds of persons have been clamoring at the doors for admission empty rows of seats have stretched through the galleries because ticket speculators who had obtained possession of the prized tickets were holding them for large prices.

The convention's sudden decision today to proceed with nominations and finish tonight instead of prolonging the sessions thru tomorrow and probably into Saturday, as had been planned, let down the bars and the speculators unloaded their tickets. The big coliseum was packed to the roof as a result. The speculators were unprepared for the sudden order to bring the convention to a close and it is believed their losses were heavy.

While the convention was assembling, it became known the Nebraska delegation planned to withdraw the vice presidency candidacy of Gov. Morehead. The delegation explained that the president had not asked the renomination of Vice President Marshall when they brought out their governor's candidacy.

Before the convention was called to order the coliseum was so full that the fire department took charge of the entrances and permitted no more to come in. William J. Bryan, however, managed to get by and get his usual uproarious reception as he took his seat. Senator James learned of the Nebraska's plight and rescued him.

Bryan Addresses Convention.

Senator Thompson of Kansas moved a suspension of rules to permit William J. Bryan to address the convention. It carried and the Nebraska immediately was brought to the platform.

Mr. Bryan opened by expressing his appreciation of the honor conferred by the invitation to speak to the convention. "Every Democratic convention is a love feast to me," he said "it gives me an opportunity to meet and renew acquaintances with men whom I have been associated in politics for more than twenty years."

He paid his respects in complimentary manner to a number of Democratic officers and leaders of the present convention.

Reviewing the struggles of the Democratic party, Mr. Bryan said: "After sixteen years of waiting our party entered the white house and fortunately we won the Senate and House at the same time. Our party became responsible for national affairs, and now we come after three years of labor to make our plans for the future, and to submit to the American people the claims of our party to continued confidence."

"Whatever differences of opinion may exist, or may have existed, as to particular measures or particular acts, we are here to begin the fight of 1916, a united party in every state in the union, ready for battle."

"Today those who stand for the Democratic party are able to go before this nation and not only give a reason for the faith that is in them, but give a defense of the administration's claims to the confidence of the people."

"You may take all the administrations from the beginning of our history as a republic to the beginning of the present one, and you will not find as many laws written upon the statute books, of great importance to the people, as you will find written in the last three years by Woodrow Wilson, a Democratic president."

Briefly Mr. Bryan then referred to the tariff revision, the federal reserve law and the strengthening of the anti-trust laws.

"No president since Jackson," said Mr. Bryan, "has had to meet such an unholly combination of the powers of high finance, and even Jackson himself never met the situation better than Woodrow Wilson met it. We have just commenced to learn what the federal reserve law means for this nation."

Breaks Hold of Wall Street.

"This great piece of legislation, the greatest piece of constructive statesmanship in a generation, has not only broken the hold of Wall street upon the business of the nation, but it has broken the grip of Wall street upon the politics of the United States. For twenty years there has not been an election but what a hundred men in Wall street could by coercion they had in their power, change the result of the election. And one who like myself has felt their power, must be pardoned if he rejoices that we have an administration that has broken that power and set a nation free."

Here were three great measures, carrying out the promise of a Democratic platform, and these three great measures constitute a record of achievement which the Republican party dare not attack.

"While our president and our congress were at work constructing this splendid pyramid of performance, a war came that threw upon this administration such burdens as no president has had to bear within the last fifty years. We inherited from a Republican administration a revolution in Mexico. This administration has dealt with that situation and the Republican party dare not challenge a verdict before the country on the Mexican question."

"But, my friends, the president not only has had to deal with war in the south of us, but with war in the east of us. My friends, I have differed from our president on some of the methods employed in this war, but I am one of those who desire sincerely that this nation shall not become a participant in the dreadful conflict."

"My friends, I believe that there is now before this country, an opportunity such as no other country has ever had since the beginning of time. I believe that God, in His providence, has reserved for the United States the honor and the task of lifting the moral code that governs individuals up to the level of nations and making it a part of the code of all nations."

"If the nations now at war had spent one tenth as much trying to cultivate friendship as they have spent trying to cultivate hatred, there would be no war in Europe today."

"If I understand this nation's opportunity and this nation's task, it is to lead the world away from its false philosophy and help it to build its hope of peace on the enduring foundation of love and brotherhood and cooperation."

BRING UP UNIQUE POINT AT ORPET TRIAL

DR. WEBSTER, NOTED TOXICOLOGIST
ON WITNESS STAND

Lawyers Seek to Determine Whether Moisture Produced by Bringing Frozen Body into a Warm Room Sufficient to Transform Cyanide of Potassium into a Solution Light Enough to Lose Its Visibility.

Waukegan, Ill., June 15.—A point, said to be unique in the history of criminal jurisprudence, was brought up today at the trial of William H. Orpet, the university student charged with the murder of Marion Lambert.

It was: Is the moisture produced by introducing a frozen body into a warm room sufficient to transform powdered cyanide of potassium into a solution light enough to lose its visibility?

Dr. Ralph W. Webster, a toxicologist of international reputation, introduced as a witness for the state, testified that he had viewed many frozen bodies, and that some of them had been brought into warm rooms, but that he knew of no record ever taken of the attendant circumstances in the present case.

Whether the cyanide of potassium which caused Marion Lambert's death was administered in liquid or crystal form is regarded by both sides as vital in determining the precise manner of her death. The state contends that it was a solution. The defense that it was finely powdered crystals.

Dr. Webster was on the stand most of the day, but despite technical nature of his examination, he was given the closest attention by those present.

While commercial cyanide of potassium was accessible to both Orpet and Marion, it is contended by the state that the alleged purchase of a two-ounce bottle by Orpet at Madison, Wis., is a circumstance weighing the scales against Orpet.

There was a dramatic moment in court in the course of the afternoon, when the hat, shoes, and all other garments worn by Marion on Feb. 9, the day of her death, were introduced.

Other testimony was given by Fred I. Wenban, the undertaker who took care of Marion's body, which was referred to frequently in the examination of Dr. Webster.

It was to the fact that it was only after several hours that the spots appeared on the coat while at the mortuary. When he removed the garments from the body, the spots, he said, did not show. Many hours later they appeared.

Mr. Webster said that this indicated that the poison was in solution. Only evaporation, leaving a deposit of potassium carbonate, would act thus, he said.

Another assertion made by the undertaker was that after the body had been taken away he noticed yellow stains in the snow where her chin had rested. Some distance away, among the footprints of the man who left, he observed similar stains, he said. It is the theory of the prosecution that the alleged murderer, after fleeing from the scene, emptied the remaining contents of the bottle.

"What color would cyanide of potassium dropped in the snow make?" Dr. Webster was asked by State's Attorney Dady.

"Yellow," he replied.

No attempt was ever made to have a chemical analysis made of this snow.

The contention of the state that the natural position in which the body was found and that a schoolbook was still under her arm, indicated that death came so speedily that convulsions were impossible, did not receive much support from the witness.

Death by the solution is normally only a few seconds faster than by the crystals, he said, and in either case it is frequently true that the convulsions do not attend when a large dose is taken. Dr. Webster will resume tomorrow.

THREE TROOPERS KILLED IN RAID

News Reaches Wilson as He Receives Draft of Note to Carranza

WILL REFUSE DEMAND

Secretary Lansing Prepares Vigorously Worded Refusal to Withdraw Troops

NO CIVILIANS ARE INJURED

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Secretary Lansing's draft of the note which will refuse Gen. Carranza's demand for withdrawal of American troops from Mexico, was laid before President Wilson for his approval today almost simultaneously with receipt of news of another border raid in which the camp of the 14th cavalry at San Ignacio, Tex., was attacked and three troopers killed.

Punitive steps against those responsible for the new depredation was left to the discretion of the border commanders, whose standing orders are to pursue into Mexico any hot trail they find. The development, however, immediately was called to the attention of the de facto government, and will be one of the elements on which the administration in its reply to Carranza will predicate its declaration that the time for withdrawal is not yet ripe because Mexican troops are not properly policing the border country.

Anti-American demonstrations throughout the republic, which also will back up this declaration, have worked with the growing seriousness of economic conditions to produce such a grave situation that officials here fear a new internal upheaval soon and have taken further steps to protect coast, and the navy transport is being held in readiness at Galveston to proceed to Mexican ports for refugees, another has been ordered to the vicinity of the Western Mexico coast, and the navy transport Hancock, now taking marines to Santo Domingo, will go from that port to Vera Cruz as soon as she has completed her present mission.

The reply to Carranza's note may be sent tomorrow or Saturday. Secretary Lansing has studiously declined to discuss it in any way, but it is known that he has prepared a vigorously worded refusal to withdraw the troops, pointing out the failure of the de facto government to lend its cooperation in hunting down outlaws who have threatened the peace of the two countries.

The Mexican situation is troubling diplomatic circles. Three members of the corps from South America saw state department officials today all seeking information as to what is portending in the distressed republic. Sir Cecil Spring Rice, British ambassador also talked Mexican matters over with state and war department officials.

Three Soldiers Dead, Six Wounded.

Laredo, Tex., June 15.—Three American soldiers are dead and six are wounded as a result of the latest raid on American territory by Mexicans coming from the southern side of the Rio Grande. No civilians were injured, as the raid was primarily an attack on the border patrol at the little settlement of San Ignacio, forty miles southeast of Laredo.

Altho successful in a measure the raid was not wholly surprising to the American guard, which, in larger numbers than the Mexicans expected to find, saw in bright moonlight the approaching of the one hundred or more bandits to the rear of the camp of troop M, of the 11th cavalry. Troop I was but a short distance away. Both were under command of Major Alonzo Gray.

The Mexican toll was last reported as eight known dead, a number wounded and several captured. In addition, 42 horses, once Mexican mounts, were captured. One Mexican who surrendered, said, according to those who made captive, that he was forced into the raid and that his sentiments were not anti-American.

The Mexicans expected to find only a small detachment of American troops at that point, according to the prisoner. They had planned with their one hundred or more, to completely overpower the border guard. They attacked troop M, encamped near the town, firing the first shot at the sentry. At the first firing, Troop I, a few hundred yards up the river, joined the fight, and after the firing had continued a half hour, the Mexicans retreated to the south, along the American side of the Rio Grande, with the Americans in pursuit.

It was rumored but not confirmed here tonight that Mexican consul Melquiades Garcia in Laredo, had gone over to the Mexican side for safety, following the example of American consul Garrett, who removed to the American side yesterday.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS OPEN ANNUAL SESSION

MORE THAN 2,000 SPANISH AND PHILIPPINE WAR VETERANS ATTEND

Jacksonville Delegation Among Those Seeking 1917 Encampment—
Consider Means to Further Interests of U. S. Veterans' Legion.

Chicago, June 15.—More than 2,000 veterans of the Spanish and Philippine wars together with several hundred members of the woman's auxiliary are in attendance at the state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, which opened its 13th annual session in Woodlawn, this city, today. The opening ceremonies were conducted by Department Commander M. J. Donohue, of Stator, assisted by Senior Vice Department Commander Geo. F. Lee of Chicago and Junior Vice Department Commander James E. Miller of Springfield.

The veterans were welcomed on behalf of the city by Mayor William Hale Thompson and on behalf of Woodlawn by Senator A. C. Clark. Judge Sheridan E. Frye, of the Municipal Court of Chicago, delivered an address at the morning session, as did also Lieut. Gov. Barratt O'Hara, who is himself a member of the organization.

Jacksonville, Decatur, Springfield, Peoria, Elgin and East St. Louis delegations are seeking the 1917 encampments, as also is Streator. A large delegation of Streator "boosters" is in attendance at the encampment and hundreds of Streator badges were distributed.

Chief business of the encampment at today's sessions was the consideration of means to further the interests of the United States Veterans Legion, an auxiliary organization to charter which a bill is now pending in the Federal Congress. The legion resulted from a series of preparedness conferences held in Chicago during the past several months.

"It is to conserve to the nation the great military strength which lies in the ranks of the United States War Veterans that the legion came into being," said Department Commander Donohue, in speaking of the movement. "A great many people favor preparedness—but most of them want 'the other fellow' to be prepared. The legion is composed of trained fighting men—men who have smelled powder; men who know how to take care of themselves in the field; men who know how to make their shots count. They already have done service for Uncle Sam, but they are willing to serve again if necessary. If the government will supply us with the arms and equipment, we will be able to furnish the country with a well drilled, experienced army of veteran fighters to the number of at least a quarter of a million. We do not want war—God knows we don't want war—but we want to be ready against a day when war shall come."

Commander Donohue called attention to the fact that recently a query sent out by National Commander L. C. Dyer, of the United Spanish War Veterans, from Washington, asking how many members of the organization were ready and willing to join the colors in the event of a war with Mexico, revealed that nearly fifty thousand trained men now in civil life are willing to respond to a call for volunteers.

"So, you see," the commander added, "we are for real preparedness—not the kind that does nothing but talk. But we cannot very well drill with canes and broomsticks. We want the government to provide us with arms."

Tomorrow night will occur the annual "grand crawl," given by the grand fair of the Military Order of the Sergeant, composed of veterans who served in the jungles of Cuba and Luzon.

Saturday afternoon a parade will be given in which several regiments of the National Guard will participate.

It was predicted tonight that George F. Lee would be elected department commander by acclamation.

G. O. P. STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE HOLDS PERFUNCTORY SESSION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 15.—The Republican State Central Committee held a perfunctory meeting here today and ratified committee officers, selected at the Republican state convention at Peoria.

"We met pretty much as a matter of form," said Walter Rosenfield of Rock Island. "It was decided, however, to open state headquarters July 1 at the Great Northern Hotel in Chicago."

The officers are: Chairman, Fred Sterling, Rockford; secretary, Edward E. Miller, East St. Louis and sergeant-at-arms, Charles Tinney, Springfield.

GIANTS SIGN DOOLAN

New York, June 15.—Manager John McGraw of the New York National League club today signed Mike Doolan, the veteran shortstop who started the season with the Chicago Nationals, but was released by the latter club to the Atlanta team of the Southern Association. Doolan balked at being released to the minors and President Weeghman of the Cubs gave him permission to dicker with the New York Nationals.

FIVE ARE KILLED WHEN STEAMER GOES ON ROCKS

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE CHECK
ACCOUNTS FOR 204 OF 210 PERSONS

Steamer Bear Lays High on a Rock
Beach, Swinging in Long Swells—
Officials Hopeful That Death List
Will Be Limited to the Five Bodies Recovered.

Eureka, Calif., June 15.—According to a check made tonight by a committee of the Chamber of Commerce here, in charge of survivors of the wrecked steamer Bear, 201 of the 210 persons comprising the vessel's passengers and crew have been accounted for. The figures showed that there were 172 persons from the Bear in Eureka. It was estimated that 27 were being cared for in the towns of Ferndale and Capetown and five are known to be dead.

Officials of the company expressed hope tonight that the death list would be limited to the five bodies recovered by sundown.

The steamer, a $1,000,000 coastwise boat, lay high on a rock beach near Sugar Loaf Reef swinging in the long swells. Her captain, Louis Nopander and three members of the crew stayed aboard until late today. The line fired from the ship cannon reached a raft which was rigged and which carried them ashore. Fourteen life boats got away from the Bear in good order. Eleven made the Blunt's Reef lightship four miles away. Two made land at the mouth of Bear River, near the wreck, and one capsized and was lost.

Fog and a strong current were the only reasons given by the ship's officers for the tragedy.

SUFFRAGISTS DISAPPOINTED BY ACTION OF COMMITTEE

Announce Intention of Taking the Fight back to Washington and Resisting Efforts to Have Congress Act on Anthony Amendment.

St. Louis, June 15.—Leaders of the woman suffrage workers who have spent the last four days in St. Louis in behalf of a platform declaration for federal action to secure the ballot for women, were disappointed tonight when they learned that the resolutions subcommittee of the Democratic national committee had agreed on a suffrage plank recommending that the question be at once submitted to the people of the various states by their legislatures.

Members of the subcommittee refused to divulge the text of the plank but suffrage leaders declared that reports to them were accurate and announced their intention of taking the fight back to Washington and resuming their efforts to have congress act on the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the constitution unless the full committee and the convention alters the plank to suit them.

Failure of the convention to declare that suffrage is a matter for federal action they said will result in personal appeals to President Wilson to urge action by Congress to act and upon Charles Evans Hughes, the Republican candidate for the presidency for a statement of his views on the question.

A leader of the newly organized Woman's Party said tonight that if results are not obtained at the White House or from congress the party will immediately begin a campaign against Democratic members of the Senate and House and will hold them personally responsible for the party's failure to meet their demands.

MORGAN ON WITNESS STAND REVEALS 'INSIDE' FINANCIAL HISTORY

NEW YORK, June 15.—"Inside" financial history was revealed by J. P. Morgan when he took the witness stand today before the Thompson Legislative Investigating Committee and told of the relations of his banking house with the Interborough Rapid Transit Company in connection with the building of New York's subway system.

The witness was "questioned closely" as to the services for which his house was paid $500,000 by the Rapid Transit Company. After a clash with Frank B. Moss, counsel of the committee in which the financier declared heatedly that the questions asked him were insulting he told of the advice given the corporation.

FINNISH LUTHERANS HOLD CONVENTION

Superior, Wis., June 15.—Superior today began the entertainment of the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran church. The attendance includes many lay and clerical leaders of the denomination from this section of the country, with a few from distant points. One of the interesting features of the convention will be a great religious concert, in which a choir of hundreds of voices will participate.

GEORGE L. HUMPHREY DIES

Springfield, Ill., June 15.—George L. Humphrey, of Oakpark, aged 48 years, general agent for the Provident Life and Trust Company of Philadelphia, with headquarters in Peoria, died here today of blood poisoning which developed from a slight abrasion on his elbow three weeks ago. Mr. Humphrey was here on business when he grew ill.

RUSSIANS CLAIM ADDITIONAL GAINS

Offensive from Volhynia to Bukowina Shows No Signs of Slackening

FRENCH TAKE TRENCH

Germans Still Violently Bombarding Sectors of Thiaumont and Souville

CANADIANS HOLD POSITIONS

The twelfth day of the Russian offensive against Austrians and Germans from Volhynia to Bukowina shows nowhere any signs of slackening. All along the front fresh gains for the Russian troops and the capture of thousands of additional prisoners and of guns, machine guns and war supplies are claimed by the Russians. The amount of prisoners now exceeds 150,000.

While semi-official advices from Petrograd give a report that the Austrians have evacuated Czernowitz capital of Bukowina, the latest official statement from Austrian headquarters says the troops of Emperor Francis Joseph are making a stand north and east of the city and at both points have repulsed Russian attacks.

Austrians Counter-Attacking.

In the drive westward from the region of Lutsk the Austrians are counter-attacking or entrenching themselves in new positions for a stand against the Russians.

No report of gains of either side in Galicia in the region of Tarnopol have come thru. Here apparently there is still a deadlock between the Russians and the Austrians and Germans.

On the German end of the northern front in Russia the Russians near Baranovichi attacked and carried German trenches, but later were forced to give them up under strong pressure by the Germans. Infantry attacks by the Germans have occurred along the Dvina river and in the Lake region south of Dvinsk, but all of these were repulsed according to Petrograd.

The French on the slopes south of Le Mort Homme, northwest of Verdun, have attacked and captured a German trench. The Germans are still violently bombarding the sectors of Thiaumont and Souville, northeast of Verdun, probably preparatory to another infantry attack with the hope of a further advance toward the fortress.

Only artillery activity is in progress on the remainder of the front in France and Belgium.

Canadians Holding Positions.

The Canadians are still holding the positions recaptured from the Germans in the vicinity of Zillebeke where there is intermittent shelling by both sides.

The fighting on the Austro-Italian line in Tyrol seemingly had died down in violence, only artillery bombardments and small infantry engagements having been reported. To the east of Montefalco, which lies a short distance from the head of the Gulf of Trieste, the Italians have captured Austrian positions and taken prisoner 450 officers and men.

Near Felabie, on the Tigris River, the Turks have repulsed an attempt of the British to advance, according to Constantinople. The annihilation of 400 British troops on the Euphrates sector also is reported by the Turkish war office. Persian volunteers are declared to be attacking the Russians near the Persian border, inflicting heavy losses.

Reducing the Infant Mortality. Some interesting statistics from Boston and New York show the most encouraging results in the campaign to reduce infant mortality in the cities and give the modern child a chance to gain a foothold in the world. The death rate of infants in New York City in now 100 in a thousand and, and is on a par with New York State as a whole. This shows an improvement of 40 percent for the city in a dozen years, and a reduction of 25 percent in the State. Boston's rate is now 109 per thousand, and the rate for Massachusetts as a whole is 105. In 1900 the state rate was 155 per thousand and it has steadily declined since then. The pure milk agitation and the campaigns of advice to mothers are credited in a large measure with the improvements.

FARMING The farmer drives his team afield, and whistles as he goes. 'Twas thus some bygone poet spied, of things no poet knows. Few poets ever pushed a mule across a rocky farm, or, laboring with rusty tool, disabled back and arm. Burns was the only farmer bard I can remember now; and he believed the life too hard, and gladly soaked his plow. I've never heard a farmer lift his voice in ardent song, except when, at the noonday shift, he heard the dinner gong. I used to drag my weary bones the furrowed field along, and I put up a thousand groans, where I turned loose one song. The farmer has so much to do, before the day takes wing, so many errands to pursue, he has no time to sing. He only whistles now and then, when he would call the dog, to chase from out the corn again, some stray bone-headed hog. His eyes are fixed upon the sky, to note the weather signs, for rain will rust his growing rye, and spoil the pumpkin vines; and drought will kill the beans and peas he planted in the spring; and, thinking over things like these, he fails to smile and sing.

fact gave further emphasis to the rumors which have been current that the university president is the Deneen choice for the governorship, and that if he concludes to make the race the Deneen organization in Cook county will give him enthusiastic support. This announcement has some local significance, as it illustrates that it is hard to get away from Jacksonville when governorship possibilities are discussed.

Probably there are not a great many people who remember that President James is a Jacksonville man, for he was born in this city in 1855. His father was Rev. Colin Dew James, a prominent figure in the Illinois Methodist conference many years ago. It was true that President James left the city of his birth when he was a boy, but he has been a visitor here quite often since that time and Jacksonville has never relinquished the right to count him a citizen.

Foreign Trade Impedes Home Business.

Dealers in farm implements and machinery have been complaining loudly recently because of the marked advance in prices charged by the manufacturers. Not alone have there been material increases in prices asked, but there has been the great difficulty in securing shipments of all kinds of implements. The reason assigned is that the steel people and others are so busy with war munition contracts that they are not furnishing enough material for home industry. As a result, a great deal of injury has been done to farm implement manufacturers and thru them to the farmers themselves. Thus another instance is furnished where excessive foreign business in one line is proving disastrous to domestic business in other lines.

Pike County Sets Good Example.

While Pike county is not entitled to credit for advance movements in every line, certainly the citizens there show a commendable interest in good roads. In the past few years some decided advance steps have been taken in the care of the highways and as a result many miles of roads have been graveled and still other great stretches are kept constantly in good condition by dragging. Care of Pike county roads is a greater task than is true in this county because in Pike there are so many creeks and streams. Many miles of roads are adjacent to the low lands of the Mississippi. The most recent exhibition of the landable good roads interest was the passage by the board of supervisors of a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of five to study road conditions in the county and to determine upon the best plan of permanent improvement.

A traffic census of the county is to be taken as a part of this investigation and the sum of $200 was appropriated to pay the expense of this census. It is entirely probable that the recommendations made by this committee will receive favorable consideration by the board of supervisors and will then have the general support of the citizenship. This expectation is based on the good reputation that Pike county citizens have of working together for the benefit of their county. They are not always all of one mind, but they are able to subject personalities to the larger public good when the proper time comes.

So in two respects Morgan county people might well imitate their neighbors on the west—in the development of a co-operative spirit and in giving attention to good roads in an orderly and systematic way.

Holding up Delegates.

The much heralded statement in the St. Louis papers that hotel keepers would not take advantage of those who attended the Democratic convention in that city, was not adhered to, and in consequence hundreds of delegates went home Thursday in disgust. It seems that the hotel managers agreed with the convention committee on a scale of prices not much in excess of the prices regularly in effect, but nothing was said about cots, and so to take care of the thousands of surplus visitors the hotels used all the available space in corridors and sample rooms for quarters, and charged the visitors very high prices for these accommodations.

Some years ago when a convention was held in St. Louis about the same thing happened and the treatment accorded visitors created so much talk that the pre-convention assurances against hold-up were necessary this year. The plan seems to be that in order to secure a big political convention, a city must promise a large fund for entertainment and other expenses and then depend upon the ability to charge the delegates high prices for every service rendered, to make back the original contribution with large interest.

It's a short-sighted policy for any group of business men, and while the St. Louis hotels have made money during the convention, they have made thousands of people "sore" who will not forget the lack of courtesy shown them, and as a result, St. Louis business men will lose a great deal of money which otherwise would have been put into the regular channels of trade with passing time.

The Highest Type of Candidate.

Springfield Republican Pro-Wilson in 1912.—The wisdom of the choice by the Republicans in 1916 leaves little opportunity for dispute when one considers the combination in this man of singular political availability with lofty qualifications of intellect and character. A Republican of the highest personal type has been given the party's highest honor. Mr. Hughes meets the severest tests of astere political rectitude, as was proved in his career as governor of New York and recently in his rigid avoidance of promotion of his political fortunes while occupying a position on the highest court in the land. There never was a case when "the office sought the man," rather than the man the office, with less suggestion of secret yearning and sly manipulation for selfish ends than in the case of Mr. Hughes. And so free is he of entangling political alliances that one can imagine no president entering the white house, should the election prove favorable to him, with greater liberty of action than Mr. Hughes. As president his independence of personal obligations to party politicians would be ideal. For he owes his nomination to no one in particular—unlike Mr. Taft in 1908 and Mr. Wilson in 1912—and he would owe his election to the people alone.

That Mr. Hughes will prove to be an aggressive and formidable candidate is suggested by his prompt attack upon the Democratic administration in his message of acceptance, and that he has political sense and shrewdness to a degree appears to be immediately demonstrated by the strength of his avowal of patriotic convictions sufficient to make Mr. Roosevelt hesitate to accept the Progressive nomination. It is, of course, nothing less than ridiculous to question the Americanism of a man like Mr. Hughes; nobody could sincerely doubt it even in the period of his enforced silence, for the Americanism of a citizen of the Hughes type has deep roots in many generations of loyalty and devotion to this country and its institutions.

DEMOCRATS RE NAME
WIL ON AND MARSHALL

"And, my friends, if this is to be the task of this nation, what party is more fit to perform the task than the party that preaches the brotherhood of man as next in importance to the fatherhood of God?"

"I as a lover of my country want my country to win this greatest of all prizes. As a Democrat I want my party to have the honor that shall come with the accomplishment and fulfillment of such a task, and I stand with the Democrats of the nation to give Woodrow Wilson an opportunity to be that man."

Delegates Applaud Wescott

Applause was given to Judge Wescott's remarks on the policy toward Mexico. The crowd was attentive and quiet. It voiced approval of America's maintenance of international law. Some of the crowd, however, were eager for the nomination. "Name him, name him," came cries from the galleries.

As Judge Wescott closed with a mention of the name of "Woodrow Wilson," the crowd broke in to a great demonstration.

Moving picture, flashlights, blazed flags were paraded in front of the stand. The band played "The Star Spangled Banner," while a huge banner bearing the president's likeness was unfurled from the roof of the hall.

The delegates began a parade bearing state stanchions. The crowd on "Aye," when the names of Wilson and Marshall were called. Many delegates stood on their chairs.

"Dixie" and other melodies by the band evoked fresh burst of cheering.

Chairman James yielded the chair during the demonstration to Representative Heflin of Alabama. Women delegates were among the paradars in the aisles. Senators and representatives helped carry banners. Senator Hughes personally bore the New Jersey flag.

Sergeant at Arms Martin stirred up the enthusiasm by waving the Texas "Lone Star" flag, handed over the heads of the crowd from the chairman's rostrum. Other state flags were taken to the platform.

The crowd joined in singing a medley, including "How Dry I Am," "Old Black Joe," "The Red, White and Blue," and others.

Delegates Anxious for Votes.

When Judge Wescott of New Jersey had placed the president in re-nomination and the nomination had been seconded by former Gov. Harmon of Ohio and Gov. Stuart of Virginia, the delegates wanted to wait no longer and cried:

"Vote, vote."

On motion of Senator Hughes of New Jersey, the rules were suspended and no ballots whatever were taken. The delegates simply roared "Aye." When the names of Wilson and Marshall were called and Chairman James declared them nominated by acclamation.

Senator Kern, nominating vice-President Marshall, discarded a long prepared speech and simply said:

"I renominate Thomas Riley Marshall."

The nominations of both candidates were completed four minutes before midnight.

Burke Votes Against Wilson.

Robert Emmet Burke of Illinois a delegate who announced he would not vote for the president, raised the only voice in opposition. He was elected as an independent.

Many delegates and spectators made a rush for the exits when the vice president nomination was made and in the confusion Senator James with great difficulty restored order. The resolutions were then read and adopted, appointing Chairman James and former Gov. Glynn of New York, chairman of committees, respectively to notify the president and vice president of their nomination.

Senators Hughes, Taggart and Vardaman were appointed to confer with the platform committee, which still was in session, to learn if it was ready to report.

Practically all of the delegates remained, but the galleries emptied quickly.

Senator Lewis of Illinois then was called to the platform to fill in the wait with a speech.

Senator Lewis, however, cut it short and merely thanked the crowd for its applause. The crowd wanted somebody to talk and there were cries for "Tom" Heflin, and Irvin Cobb. Heflin took the platform.

While he was talking the conferees returned from the platform committee and reported that the platform would not be ready for the convention for two or three hours more.

Senator Hughes recommended an adjournment.

COMPLETE ARGUMENT TO JURY
IN BEHALF OF Z. C. PATTEN

CHICAGO, June 15.—Argument to the jury in behalf of Z. C. Patten, Jr., of the Chattanooga Medicine Company, manufacturers of Wine of Cardui, in his libel suit against the American Medical Association, was completed late today. Federal Judge Carpenter announced he would give his instructions to the jury tomorrow morning, following which the case would be given to the jury.

Actual damages of $100,000 are sought, but attorney Francis W. Walker for the plaintiff asked that further damages be assessed.

This was the fifty seventh day of the trial.

The testimony of witnesses and the arguments of the attorneys filled more than 6,000 pages of the record and amounted to 2,000,000 words. In addition there were 600 depositions, containing 3,845,000 more words. But 114 of these were read, the rest being considered by the court as read. The case is said to be one of the longest and costliest of civil cases tried in the United States District Court here, estimates placing the cost at more than $2,000 a day on each side, totalling $228,000, or more than twice the actual damages asked by Mr. Patten.

DEMOCRATS CHALLENGE A COMPARISON OF THEIR RECORD

Preamble of Platform Asserts Wilson's Administration is Best Exposition of Sound Democratic Policy at Home and Abroad.

St. Louis, Mo., June 15.—The preamble to the Democratic platform as completed by the subcommittee and submitted to the full committee on resolutions is as follows:

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, adopts the following declarations to the end that the people of the United States may both realize the achievements wrought by four years of Democratic administration, and be apprised of the policies to which the party is committed for the further conduct of national affairs.

"We endorse the administration of Woodrow Wilson. It speaks for itself. It is the best exposition of sound Democratic policy at home and abroad.

"We found our country hampered by special privilege, a vicious tariff, obsolete banking laws and an inelastic currency. Our foreign affairs were dominated by commercial interests for their selfish ends. The Republican party, despite repeated pledges, was impotent to correct abuses which it had fostered. Under our administration, under a leadership which has never faltered, these abuses have been corrected, and our people have been freed.

"Our archaic banking and currency system, prolific of panic and disaster under Republican administrations—long the refuge of the money trust—has been supplanted by the Federal Reserve act, a true Democratic credit under government control already proved a financial bulwark in a world crisis, mobilizing our resources placing abundant credit at the disposal of legitimate industry and making a currency panic impossible.

"We have created a Federal Trade Commission to accommodate the perplexing questions arising under the anti-trust laws that monopoly may be strangled at its birth and legitimate industry encouraged. Fair competition in business is now assured.

"We have effected an adjustment of the tariff, adequate for revenue under peace conditions, and fair to the consumer and to the producer. We have adjusted the burdens of taxation so that swollen incomes bear their equitable share. Our revenues have been sufficient in times of world stress.

"We have lifted human labor from the category of commodities and have secured to the working man the right of voluntary association for his protection and welfare. We have protected the rights of the laborer against the unwarranted issues of writs of injunction and have guaranteed to him the rights of trial by jury in alleged contempt cases committed outside of the presence of the court.

"We have advanced the parcels post to genuine efficiency, enlarged the postal saving system, added ten thousand rural delivery routes and extensions, thus reaching two and one half millions additional people, improved the postal service in every branch and for the first time in our history, placed the postoffice system on a self supporting basis, with actual surplus in 1913, 1914 and 1915."

HAVE YOU Made a Will?

Do you realize that if you do not dispose of your property by WILL, your estate may be disposed of by law very differently from the way you would wish? The law respecting estates for which no will has been made, takes no account of the special personal needs of each beneficiary.

Perhaps one of your heirs may not be well qualified to care for property, and it should be placed in trust for him; or, perhaps circumstances may make it advisable that one heir should receive a larger share than the others; or that the property should be given to him in a different form from that given others. But, unless a WILL is made, each heir must share the property in accordance with the rigid provisions of the law.

When you make your WILL, why not assure efficient and economical management of your estate by appointing The Farmers State Bank and Trust Company as executor and trustee? The Company has all the qualifications of a competent trustee, including assured existence throughout generations of beneficiaries. It has qualifications which no individual can possess. Moreover, the cost of its specialized and competent service is no greater than the uncertain service of an individual trustee.

The officers of the Company will be glad to confer with you, regarding this important matter, or any other trust or banking business you have in mind.

and Trust Company
You Can Trust This Trust Company.

Speech of John Wescott Nominating Wilson

St. Louis, Mo., June 15.—The speech of Hon. John W. Westcott of New Jersey, nominating President Wilson at the Democratic convention here tonight follows:

Prophecy is fulfilled. The eternal verities of righteousness have prevailed. Undismayed by the calamities of war, unmoved by vituperation and vain declamation, holding to the pure altar of truth, the schoolmaster is statesman, the statesman financier, the financier emancipator pacificator, the pacificator the moral leader of democracy.

The nation is at work. The nation is at peace. The nation is accomplishing the destiny of Democracy. Four years ago the nation was not at work. With resources boundless, with a hundred million people eager to achieve and do, commerce languished, industries halted, men were idle. The country struggled in the toils of an inadequate financial system. Credit was at mercy of piracy. The small business man was bound hand and foot. Panic hung like a storm cloud over the business world.

Now bursting granaries, teeming factories, crowded railways and overladen ships distribute wealth and comfort to uncounted millions the world over. Production outruns the means of distribution. The parallel of American prosperity is not found in industrial history; nor is it causeless. It did not descend, like a merciful accident, from heaven. It is not due to the devastations of a revised tariff. It is not the result of destructive legislation. It cannot be attributed to the manufacture of war materials, constituting a bare five per centum of the volume of national business. War is destruction, not production. War entails international trade. War depresses industrial energy. When the European catclysm struck the world, moratoria fell like a blight upon many of the neutral nations, but not upon the United States.

There stands the astounding phenomenon of American prosperity. What is its explanation? The Euclid of financial theory worked to a demonstration, measures for the country's relief. He promptly put into effect the legislative expression of a great program. He did not talk. He did things. He dynamited the monetary dams and let credit flow to the remotest corners of the land. Its spray dashing even upon foreign shores. He released the nation's resources and set the energies of all men free to exploit them. He destroyed commercial slavery. He struck off its shackles. The prosperity of the nation is the product of statesmanship and financial genius. American credit is now limited only by its own honesty and capacity. The cause being undisturbed, the effects must remain. The schoolmaster is statesman, the statesman is financier, the financier is emancipator. With Lincoln, the emancipator of the chattel slave, he will live forever as the emancipator of the commercial slave.

The nation is at peace in a world at war. America is confronted with appalling realities. It is not the part of wisdom to play with phantoms, deal in riddles, or seek to entertain national imagination with the legerdemain of language. To build words mountain high as the throne of vanity and ambition should not be an American pastime. An attempt to catch the Presidency by phrases is the work of folly. The function of a sounding brass and tinkling cymbal is not germane to the tragic conditions of the world. When the fate of millions is at stake, it is not the part of any man to stack the cards. With civilization in peril, the sphinx becomes an anachronism. The anachronism will remain the mysterious silence of the ages. The safety of the nation will not permit the supreme court of the United States to become a political supply shop. With the whole world tense and anxious, patriotic advice and suggestion are of more value than abuse and defamations. Speculation with the blaze of truth. Abusive phraseology shrives before the relentless fact. Honesty is the commanding quality of a free and patriotic American.

What are the realities that face us? In Mexico exist the potentialities of civilization. In her wealth, her history, her schools, her religion, her needs, her very suffering and patriotism lie the indestructible seeds of progress. To have conquered Mexico would have seated death at the American fireside. It would have destroyed our prosperity and added hundreds of millions of tax to the burdens of the nation. It would have planted distrust and hatred of the United States in every South American republic. It would have forfeited the respect of the world. It would have substituted the tenets of imperialism for the principles of Americanism. It would have prostituted the bravery and patriotism of American arms to the greed and avarice of concessionaires. It would have robbed the United States of the grade of her mission amongst the nations of the earth. It would have made right and repudiated the doctrines of Christianity. It would have ignored the fundamental conceptions of moral progress and denied the right of fifteen millions of people to govern themselves. Ambition and greed were prepared to sacrifice America and all that America stands for, in order to acquire the wealth of Mexico. The diplomacy of "watchful waiting" averted these calamities and preserved in their original purity the principles of American freedom and justice. "Watchful waiting" repudiated the brutal dictum of science that the weak must go down before the strong. Help Mexico lest, over her bloody grave are sown the dragon's teeth of our destruction.

War with any European nation would have set the world aflame and stopped the march of progress for a century. (Would anyone have had it? This is the virility of Americanism?) Is a "virile Americanism" bloodshed, destruction, the horrors of war and its uncertainties? The substance of civilization is the arts, the sciences, literature, philosophy, industry, the domestic virtues, freedom, religion and peace. But this is the substance of American nationalism. This is the virility of Americanism. It knows no national boundaries. It yet lives in the trenches and broken homes of Europe and its thrones. The stupendous conflagration is consuming the errors of statesman and dynasties; it is not consuming the substance of civilization. Civilization is a unity. War with Europe would have cut asunder the moral forces that bind the nations and left an age of darkness, anarchy and despair. Standing on the immutable foundations of such Americanism, the schoolmaster and statesman, with consummate skill, a skill that commands the admiration of the world, directs the forces of civilization, not with arms, but with reason and moral pressure against the excesses of a belligerent world. With preternatural poise and clearness of vision, he is piloting America thru the rushing storm. Who can deny the existence of a moral design in the universe? Who now can close his eyes to the destiny of democracy to make the principles of civilization dominant, to bring the warring nations of the earth together in lasting peace? The passions of men die. The truth lives. America has called to Europe; Europe is responding in terms of a revitalized civilization. The sublimest picture in civil history is that of a plain American citizen manoeuvring with the weapons of reason and humanity against the navies and armies of the contending nations, and bringing them in accord with the principles of international law. The American standard of peace and justice now floats on the sea. It is unfurling over the trenches of the struggling nations. From the vantage ground of imperishable Americanism, the matchless craft of a real pacifist has not only avoided all war, but is leading the world into the ways of peace. What is peace but the assertion of moral progress? What is the assertion of moral progress but the indestructible civilization of Europe and America? From the smouldering ruins of a thousand cities, over the graves of millions of brave men, out of the blackness of the battle smoke, arising from the obscurities of national passions already the peoples of the earth recognize the dim outlines, growing ever more distinct, of the composite soul of America, in the patient and humane vision of the world's real pacificator. Of what avail all the wealth of our beloved land if it had been consumed in the destructiveness of war? What avail the travail of human progress for ten thousand years had not the schoolmaster and statesman been pacificator? His achievement is so vast that ambitious men are blind to its reality. But the plain millions, of all creeds and nationalities, recognize in it the imperishable glories of a Christian civilization. It glorifies the peasant and king alike. The schoolmaster is statesman, the statesman is financier, the financier is emancipator, the emancipator is the pacificator of the world.

Thus is the nation accomplishing the destiny of Democracy. The commanding fact of a modern age is the spread of intelligence. The schoolhouse has conquered ignorance. The printing press has transformed the purposes and capacities of man. Education has qualified him for a better existence. The Bible has made him a moralist. Men know that the world is big enough to support the human family in peace and comfort. Men know that that great problem of peace and comfort is not yet solved. They know that it cannot be solved by the savagery of war. They know that its solution is obtainable only in conditions of peace, reason and a practical morality. This state of knowledge is the crowning achievement of progress.

The American experiment of self government has stood the test. The achievements of the American system are known of all men and felt thruout the world. The United States is the world's asylum. Here all races, all conditions, all creeds are assimilated, helped, elevated, and men are made into self-governing men. In America justice has made its greatest progress, because it is progress in which all men have a part. That form of government which affords the fullest opportunity for happiness and comfort is destined to be the universal form. Such is the resistless syllogism of progress. War cannot stop its inevitable march. The opinion of all men is more potent than the opinion of one man. The best opinion of the best men, by the force of example and mutuality of interest, becomes the opinion of all men. American opinion is embodied in a man of peace. American opinion is marching thru the world.

When the Imperialism of Europe cast the iron dice of destiny, America threw the moral dice of destiny. America staked the principles of her justice. There they stand in untarnished integrity in the gaze of a stricken world. The intelligence of men grasp the meaning of America. Her example will readjust the relations of men everywhere. The aspirations of men are for freedom. Men and women can and should rule themselves. The day when they rule themselves war will disappear. The hand of Divinity has so written it in the needs and necessities of humanity made in its image.

THE STAND OF CORN

While the subject of "stand" of corn is still fresh in the minds of all farmers, it might be worth while to call attention to the results of the seed testing done here this spring. I asked each person who sent in samples to be tested to mark each sample definitely as to when and how the corn had been picked and cared for. Altho I received and tested a large number, only twenty were marked in such a way that I could tell these things. These twenty show results that are of interest. Eight were 1914 corn, seven were picked in the fall of 1915 and properly cared for, and the remaining five were either picked during corn husking or from the corn crib.

The eight samples of corn picked in the fall and properly cared for germinated 98.3 per cent as an average. The samples picked from the crib or during corn husking averaged 91.4 per cent. The probability is that 95 people out of a hundred would not detect a difference in stand between two fields planted respectively from properly picked seed, and from crib picked seed, yet any one knowing the results of these tests knows that there would be a difference, and if the grower would make an accurate count, he would find that there is a difference in stand which must result in a difference in yield.

Where is the trouble? It seems to me that it is that farmers do not discriminate between a strong germ and a weak one. Or, in other words, between seed that will simply germinate and seed that will come up and grow a strong plant. The 80 per cent that I have given above were the strongest germs in the 1910 corn. There were others that started but they grew. Even the 80 per cent that were counted as strong were much weaker than the germs of the 1915 corn and the probability is that if they were planted some of them would not come under the adverse conditions prevailing during a good part of the spring. The farmer makes a great mistake when he counts that every seed which is alive and germinates will grow a strong plant and a good ear. A weak germ will either not produce a plant at all, or it will be a weak plant which, at best, can only produce a small ear.

A farmer cannot make money faster than by spending a few days in the fall going thru his corn and picking his seed properly, when he is not trying to get a hundred bushels a day into the crib.

PARK BOARD NOTES.

The park board met last evening to consider various matters. It was decided that two single horse lawn mowers would be a wise investment and the purchase was authorized. As it is now the two horse mower is old and frequently gets out of order and a second man must go along to cut around the trees and various obstructions but with the mowers ordered this will not be necessary. The driveways are constantly needing attention and the patience of "Uncle Jerry" has been taxed about as far as it will go in loaning one of his graders so it was decided to order one which may be used in keeping the drives in order.

The closets are to be cleaned, disinfected and some interior improvements are to be made and in order to make things look a little neater the order to remove the shoot the chutes lumber at once was issued. The spillway still has small amount of water running over it and the children as well as adults often want to cross it which is decidedly dangerous as moss has made the surface slippery so the matter of a foot-bridge is being considered.

Flitely will soon be here and the order was to have the screen doors of the eating pavilion on the south side examined and put in good condition. Tennis lovers will be glad to know that there are to be six courts in a short time as the work is being as rapidly pushed forward as possible, and more will be accommodated for as it is now a good many coming to play don't have a chance.

Complaint has been made that during ball games people block the roadway with vehicles which is unjust and the order was that it must be stopped and authority was given the policeman in charge to clear the roadways and keep them clear.

There are six baby swans which look very pretty; the elk are doing well and the monkeys are as great an attraction as ever. Last Sunday a man said he had just finished giving them a dozen bananas and he has fed them freely and they seem to thrive under it.

Many compliments are paid the new apparatus on the children's play ground. Don't forget that this was made at home, Messrs. Anderson and Gomes being the ones in command. Golf is becoming more and more popular and many go out taking their breakfast along and playing early in the day. The links are declared very good.

Mrs. W. O. Swales and son Donald left yesterday for an extended visit in western states. The first stop will be made in McAllister, Oklahoma. After a visit in that city they will visit friends and relatives in Texas, Kansas and Missouri.

We put it up to Hundreds of Dentists

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists, requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis—

STOCK DEALINGS TAPER OFF TO SMALLEST TOTAL IN WEEKS

Traders Proceed With Greater Precaution in View of the Uncertainties Surrounding the Railway Labor Situation and Affairs in Mexico

New York, June 15.—The market was in doldrums during the great part of today's irregular session, dealings tapering off to the smallest total of recent weeks. Traders proceeded with greater precaution in view of the uncertainties surrounding the railway labor situation and affairs in Mexico. The continued absence of public or investment inquiry was another decided drawback.

Prices received their initial reversal in the forenoon, when extensive offerings of Anglo-French war bonds caused a decline of a substantial fraction of a point. The heaviness of this issue was the more inexplicable from the fact that much of the foreign news was distinctly helpful to the entente allies cause. It was regarded as being not unlikely that liquidation of these bonds was induced to an extent by the belief that other and probably more attractive foreign loans are soon to be offered here.

Of all the leaders, United States
Steel exhibited greatest steadiness, hovering about its recent best price.
Total sales of stocks amounted to 430,000 shares.

Bonds were irregular, with total sales par value $4,430,000.
Panama coupon 3's advanced 3/4 and the registered 3's 1/2 per cent.

Every Woman Should Use Every Week Shampoo

To Preserve Her Hair

If women would use an Anti-Septic Oil Shampoo instead of the soaps and shampoos now so commonly used, they would improve rather than injure the delicate hair plants.

The hair plant is an oil plant and to wash it with soaps or shampoos containing free alkali works great injury. It not only cuts the natural oil of the hair but it destroys the fatty roots of the hair plant, causing the hair to come out.

EVERY WEEK ANTI-SEPTIC OIL SHAMPOO cleanses and purifies the scalp, dissolves and removes dandruff, opens the clogged hair cells and leaves the scalp soft and healthy.

It leaves the hair soft, lustrous, fluffy and easy to handle.

Excellent for men and children also. A large bottle holding 64 teaspoonfuls 50c at Lee P. Allcott, Armstrong's Drug Store, Clarence L. DePew, J. A. Obermeyer and son and leading stores everywhere.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Will Join for Annual Memorial Service

Union I. O. O. F. memorial exercises will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at State Street Presbyterian church. Preparations are practically complete and the service gives promise of being one of the most noteworthy fraternal events held in Jacksonville for many a day. The occasion will be the ninety-eighth annual observance of the order. The two Odd Fellow lodges and the two Rebekah lodges will take part as will the two Jacksonville encampments. The program at the church will consist of the annual Memorial address by the Hon. M. P. Berry of Carthage, Ill., a past grand master of the order and the present grand treasurer. Mr. Berry is a man of magnetic personality and an able speaker, well versed in the tenets of the order and known throughout the state for addresses at Odd Fellow memorial services. Music will be furnished by the I. O. O. F. quartet. Carl H. Weber will act as chairman of the exercises and the Rev. W. E. Spooner will lead the devotional service. Miss Inez Huckerby is to preside at the organ. F. M. Brewer will be chairman of the brief exercises at I. O. O. F. temple preceding the march to the church. All Odd Fellows will meet at the temple at 2 o'clock and Rebekahs will meet at I. O. O. F. hall, West State Street at the same hour. The Rebekahs will join the procession from their meeting place on West State street. T. M. Tomlinson of Urania lodge No. 243, and T. S. Martin of Illini lodge No. 4, will act as marshals.

Odd Fellow memorial exercises have heretofore been held in connection with the morning services of one of the local churches. A new plan was broached this year and already it has met with general approval.

The committees having charge of the exercises are:

Urania lodge—Carl H. Weber, R. E. Crabtree and Fred Wiley.
Illini lodge—F. M. Brewer, C. W. Boston and J. Clark Rothwell. Ushers from Urania lodge are Clyde D. Black, John T. Roberts, and Emmet Miller, and from Illini lodge Frank Eyrns, Arthur G. Cody and Benjamin Burdick.

Jacksonville Rebekah lodge No. 13 and Caritas lodge No. 625 will have charge of the decorations at the church. An interesting feature of the day will be the decorating of the graves of the Odd Fellows buried on the I. O. O. F. lot at Jacksonville cemetery.

HON. M. P. BERRY.

FROM THE EDUCATOR'S NOTEBOOK.

Philadelphia—After many months of preparation and conferences, the merger of the three great medical schools of the city, Jefferson Medical College, the Medico-Chirurgical School and the Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania, has finally been accomplished. By the union a new institution is born, known as "The Medical School of the University of Philadelphia," and the sponsors for the amalgamation believe that their action creates a new epoch in American medicine, bringing this city back its former prestige as a medical center and establishing the Berlin-Vienna system for students here. The united medical schools form the largest institution of its kind in the country.

New York—Beginning next October, when the Rhodes examinations will be held, a year's intermission in electing scholars for study abroad will be done away with, and a new plan substituted whereby scholars from 32 of our 48 states will be chosen annually. Hitherto the Rhodes system chose scholars from all states of the union in two successive years. Then there followed a year when no one was elected by the great English trust. In the future scholars will be elected from 32 states every year, and for this purpose the 48 states have been divided into three groups of 16 each—A, B, and C. Thus in 1914 scholars will be elected from A and B; in 1915 from B and C; and in 1916 from C and A, and so on.

Berkeley, Calif.—University of California students have made a periodic orbit calculation for the comet discovered Feb. 25 in Crimea. The computation is the first, it is believed, that has ever been made of the comet, which has been observed at Lick Observatory, Mt. Hamilton, Cal., at the Yerkes Observatory, Lake Geneva, Wis., and at the Hamburg Observatory in Germany. It was from these observations that the computation was made, showing that the comet belongs to the Jupiter group and has an approximate period of revolution of 5.2 years.

Ames, Ia.—Fifteen sophomore forestry students at Iowa State College started yesterday on a forestry inspection trip thru the great national forest reserves of the west. They will study lumbering methods, marketing, fire production and other forestry operations. When the Columbia national forest in Washington is reached, the students will go into camp and spend four weeks in doing practical forest surveying, estimating, study of forest types, study of forest nursery work and mensuration. Another camp will be established for three weeks in St. Mary's forest, Idaho.

Watertown, S. D.—Among the noted speakers of South Dakota and other states who will speak at the joint teachers' institute being held at State College in Brookings this week, are Governor Frank M. Byrne of South Dakota, Governor W. H. Ferris of Michigan, Dr. George E. Vincent, president of the University of Minnesota, and O. H. Benson of the department of agriculture of Washington.

San Francisco, Calif.—Visits to every capital in the world instead of university courses is the educational program mapped out by Ernest Rodriguez, millionaire coffee planter of Guatemala for his family of five children. The wealthy Guatemalan and his family are now in this city on the first leg of this round-the-world educational trip, which will cost approximately $300,000. The party expects to be travelling three years before it accomplishes its purpose of seeing the capital of every country in the world, making the annual cost of the "travel college" about $100,000. "Books," says Senator Rodriguez, "are but the summaries of the lessons taught by life. What need to read books when one can see the world? What need to study languages from books when one can learn them from the natives?" From this city the party will go to Japan, and after a prolonged sojourn to this country, for whose institutions these intelligent Latin Americans express warm admiration.

PROBATE COURT

In the estate of Emily Murray, the jury empaneled to hear evidence on the claim of $450, filed by Edward Murray, son of the deceased, was unable to agree and Judge Thomson discharged them. The claim was largely for services, the claimant setting forth that he conveyed Mrs. Murray to the cemetery two or three times each week during a long period and made a charge of $1.50 for each trip.

In the estate of John C. Curran, final report was approved and the administrator discharged.

In the estate of George L. Merrill, the administrator, J. H. Russell, made report and was authorized to pay certain claims.

MARRIED AT FERNIE

Telegrams have been received by relatives here announcing the marriage of Miss Jane Leck and Mr. James C. Pyatt at Fernie, British Columbia. Miss Leck arrived in that city last Monday morning and the ceremony was performed at noon in the parsonage of the Methodist church. Announcement of the wedding was made in Jacksonville several weeks ago. Mr. Pyatt has an excellent position with a large department store there and left Jacksonville about six weeks ago to take up his work in Fernie.

FORMER TEACHER HERE DECLINES POSITION AT PONTIAC

Miss Davis Does Not Wish Appointment Because State Institution Teachers are Not Under Pension Law.

According to a statement from Springfield, Miss Roberta M. Davis of Carrollton, formerly a teacher at the School for the Blind here, has declined a position at the Pontiac reformatory because teachers in state institutions are not eligible to the benefits of the teachers' pension law. Miss Davis passed a civil service examination but declined the appointment to Pontiac which was offered her for the reason already quoted. In a letter to the board Miss Davis points to an unfairness which the board members themselves acknowledge. Miss Davis having taught eight years in the school for the Blind here, cannot obtain any credit therefor under the pension law, whereas if she had spent an equal number of years in a public school outside of Illinois she would be given due credit. The opinion given by Attorney General Lucey outlines that the law does not apply to teachers in state institutions as these institutions do not in the attorney's opinion come within the meaning of the words "public school" as used in the law. The portion of the statute on which the attorney general bases this opinion is in the following language:

"No credit will be given for teaching except in the public schools in this or other states. The term 'public school' shall have the same meaning as defined by the state department of public instruction, which is as follows: (1) it must be supported in the main by public revenues, organized and controlled by public officials; (2) it must be open to all persons on the same conditions; (3) it must be instructed by teachers who hold certificates legally authorizing them to teach that particular grade of work and to draw public funds."

Because of the manifest unfairness of this part of the statute it is entirely probable that the next session of the legislature will be asked to amend the law. The annual report of the pension and retirement fund is now being prepared and will show that 1,348 teachers have taken advantage of the law. The cost to the state for the year ending June 30 will be about $143,000. The trustees and others especially interested in the law are expecting that it will be attacked at the coming legislative session, as there was strong opposition to the law when it was passed. The claim is made that the statute is discriminatory and that there is no more reason for providing for the old age of teachers than for merchants, preachers or artisans.

MISS CAIN RETURNS FROM ST. MARY'S

Miss Catharine Cain has just returned from St. Mary's Academy in Quincy, Illinois. She has finished her Sophomore year, during which time she completed not only the prescribed High School studies but also pursued a special course in general aesthetics.

This course is peculiarly adapted to secure for the student a culture and refinement without which an education is quite incomplete. It was under the immediate direction of Dr. W. W. Lauder, critic and lecturer of Chicago. Dr. Lauder visited the college three days every month and gave two lectures a day. The first day of each series was devoted to music, the second to art, and the third to literature.

The management of St. Mary's feels fortunate in securing Dr. Lauder for the next year.

MORGAN STREET POOL ROOM WILL REMAIN CLOSED

Nothing to Reopening Stories is Statement by Commissioner Martin.

The rumors current yesterday that strong influences would be brought to bear on the city commissioners to have them renew the license for the West Morgan street pool room recently closed, were without foundation. Commissioner J. Edgar Martin, on whose suggestion the council revoked the license of the proprietor of the pool room, said last night that as far as he is concerned there is absolutely no chance of the pool room being reopened, and he declared that any suggestion that political influence would be used to secure a renewal of the license is entirely out of place. "That pool room has been closed in the interest of public welfare. The violations of law had been such that the place was a menace and it is going to remain closed. The matter of friendship or politics or anything of that kind does not enter into this proposition, and when a license is revoked it means that other measures to control a place have been exhausted and that the final action has been determined upon. The public will not be bothered any further with the West Morgan street pool room."

STATE NEWS NOTES*Barry Wants Better Water Supply

The people of Barry will hold an election July 7 to decide for or against the issuance of $17,000 bonds for the development for the water supply. The present water supply is from wells drilled into limestone rock and from cisterns. The supply has not been adequate for fire protection and the council now proposes to pipe water from the Watson spring, located about a mile west of the city. The water is of fine quality and it is believed that if the proposed pipe line and reservoir are installed, that a great many private consumers of water will be secured.

Carried Bullet Fifty Years.

He had been carrying this bullet for nearly fifty years as he was wounded October 1, 1861, at Fredericktown, Mo. Not until recently had the lead caused him any serious inconvenience, but its removal became advisable.

The salaries have been held up since Representative W. A. Hubbard of Carrollton filed injunction proceedings some months ago. The chairman of the commission is M. M. Stephens of East St. Louis, and his salary was fixed by law at $6,000. The commissioners, with salaries of $5,000, are Edward J. Kelly and Joseph Haas of Chicago. Samuel Drew of Joliet and John A. ### ILLINOIS COLLEGE TO PUSH ENDOWMENT INCREASE PLANS

Library and Memorial Will Be First New Building—Capps Memorial Fund Increased

At the annual meeting of the trustees of Illinois college active preparations were made for the beginning of a campaign to secure new endowment of $500,000. It is the intention to use the first $75,000 for the establishment of a library and museum building. The sum of $25,000 already secured will be used for this purpose. By action of the trustees a Professor and Mrs. Harvey W. Michigan library fund was established. Resolutions were adopted formally accepting the memorial fund of E. B. and Harriet Williams, made possible by the generosity of H. W. Williams. Representatives of the college will meet with representatives of other colleges who share in the Williams fund, for the purpose of adopting plans for the advantage of all the institutions concerned. The committee appointed for this work includes Andrew Russell, Thomas Worthington, Pres. C. H. Rammekamp, Dr. F. S. Hayden and Prof. J. G. Ames.

Announcement was made of an addition of $1,000 to the Stephen R. and Rhoda Tomlin Capps memorial fund, bringing the total to about $6,000. Thomas L. Fausler of Philadelphia was elected member of the board and Frederick C. Tanner was reelected alumni trustee in accordance with the expressed wish of the alumni. The resignations of Rev. L. H. Davis and Rev. H. D. Frenn were received. Among trustees in attendance were H. J. Dunbaugh, Chicago; J. F. Downing, Kansas City; J. J. Bergen, Virginia; Robert Lampier, Springfield; Rev. Thomas Smith, East Orange, N. J.

The report of the buildings and grounds committee made a complete statement of work done the past year and other work that is planned for this year. A number of improvements will be made in the gymnasium, where the boys' locker room will be remodeled, and a girls' locker room will be installed. The latter improvement is made possible by the generosity of Andrew Russell, chairman of the board.

ON WRONG ROAD

Friends of John T. Sample and Charles Hoagland were having some fun at their expense yesterday. These two well known citizens started to the horse show at Ashland Wednesday in an automobile. At some means or other they got off the road and were far into Sangamon county before the mistake was discovered. As a result they did not arrive at Ashland until the events were nearly over. The friends of these citizens had previously believed that they knew about every foot of ground in Morgan and surrounding counties.

BUYS MEAT IN WHOLESALE QUANTITY

Local Man Reticent About Source of His Supply of Hams and Bacon.

William, alias "Box," Mitcherson, of Lorton street evidently believes in preparedness. For some time Mitcherson has been buying meat from someone at reduced prices. For some time also farmers throught the county have been having trouble with meat thieves.

The matter had been reported to the police some time ago and tho they have been on the lookout, it was not until a few days ago that any clue was obtained. Then it was learned that Mitcherson was selling country hams, bacon and shoulders. The police got hold of Mitcherson. He acknowledged he had been buying meat from someone. However, he said he did not know the party's name.

Incidentally, Mitcherson took to the police station a ham weighing 26 pounds, two shoulders and a side of bacon. The police have had a number of farmers who have lost meat, but so far no one has laid claim to it.

According to the police, Mitcherson says he has been buying meat from someone for some time. Mitcherson said he could get it much cheaper than he could buy at the butchers. In addition to getting his own meat cheap, Mitcherson has been able to sell some to his friends. He told the police that he received $2 for a 16-pound ham, which is a bargain in these days of high prices.

Mitcherson has heretofore born an excellent reputation. So far as is known, he has never figured in the police courts and has always been a steady worker. However, the police doubt the truth of his statement that he does not know the man from whom he has been buying the meat. The police believe that it would be impossible for him to deal with a man for several months and not know his name, or where he lived. It is hoped that some one may identify the meat and that it will lead to the arrest of the thieves.

FIRE AT ASHLAND
Wednesday afternoon while people in Ashland were enjoying the horse show a fire caught the oil tanks at the Union Depot, and despite the efforts of the fire department considerable damage was done. The fire however was extinguished before it caught any of the buildings. It was supposed to have started from waste which caught on fire while a railway employee was lighting lanterns in the oil yard.

CHILDREN HAD FINE TIME AT NICHOLS PARK

This Arrangement Made by Salvation Army—125 Enjoyed Picnic.

The picnic for poor children given under the direction of Capt. Mace of the Salvation army Thursday at Nichols park proved a very successful event. There were about 125 children present, and in accordance with the announcement made by Capt. Mace, they gathered at Central park at 9 o'clock and were transported to Nichols park on cars furnished free by the Jacksonville Street Railway company. The morning hours were spent in games of all kinds and at noon a generous picnic lunch was served. Then came more games and contests and still later the ice cream freezers were opened and the children had all they could eat. The funds for the picnic were made possible from the recent tag day and all the contributors had they seen the happy company at the park Thursday would have felt that their money was being well spent. Capt. Mace was well pleased with the whole affair as nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the day.

AL BALDWIN HAS JAW BROKEN.

Al Baldwin the local fighter, returned yesterday from Drumwright, Okla., where he fought Sailor Kirke Monday night. Baldwin had his jaw broken in the seventh round and was compelled to quit in the eighth. Up to that time it was a pretty fight with the honors even. In the seventh Kirke hooked Baldwin to the jaw as he was ducking away. Baldwin said it was not nearly as hard a blow as he had been hit many times before and did not even stagger him. However, it caught him just right and broke the bone. Baldwin went back in the eighth but by that time his jaw was giving him such pain that he could not continue. His face is badly swollen as the result of the break but he is having proper attention given the injury. It is rather a tough piece of luck as Baldwin had three fights booked within the next few weeks and the injury will probably keep him out of the ring for several months.

W. J. MOORE'S FUNERAL HELD AT RESIDENCE THURSDAY

Large Company Gathered to Pay Respect to His Memory—Services in Charge of Rev. F. B. Madden.

Funeral services for William J. Moore were held from the residence 603 South Prairie street Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Frederic B. Madden, pastor of Grace church. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased. The members of Matt Starr Post G. A. R. attended the funeral in a body and had charge of the services at the grave with J. W. Melton as chaplain. Mrs. H. C. Woltman sang two solos, "Lead Kindly Light" and "Sometime We'll Understand." There were many beautiful floral offerings and these were cared for by Mrs. H. C. Clement, Mrs. Baumgardner, Mrs. Herbert Capps and Mrs. Thomas.

Dr. Madden said in part: "We are assembled this hour to pay our tribute of respect to the life and character of an honored and long time citizen. For almost half a century William J. Moore has been a resident of this city. In the autumn of 1872—48 years ago—he came here with his young wife and began a business career in the mercantile world in which the years passed he achieved by industry, integrity and prudence notable and gratifying success. He not only accumulated property but won the respect and good will of those who were privileged to know him.

"His life was a constructive force. He stood for the best things in civic, social and religious affairs, and men esteemed him for his worth, his manhood, his character. In a quiet and unobtrusive, but forceful way he contributed as a humble and faithful citizen to the up-lifting of the community and the wholesome influence of his life will abide long after the departure of his personality. As merchant, alderman and church official, Mr. Moore gave efficient service to the community life. But above his business career, above his patriotism, and even above his domestic happiness, he prized his religious faith and spiritual life. When a lad of only 12 summers he was converted under the ministry of Rev. A. N. Sparr and united with the M. E. church.

"His experience as a christian was rich and deep and his knowledge of God's word and of the great doctrines of Christianity was full and clear. He found great delight in the prayer and class meetings and other social means of grace.

"My personal acquaintance with Brother Moore was limited to a few months but during the past winter he was a regular attendant at the Wednesday evening prayer service and his petitions, testimonies and conversations evidenced an unusual familiarity with the Holy Scriptures and a deep and reverent and fervent trust in God. Last Saturday afternoon I conversed with him at his home for nearly an hour and was deeply interested in his delightful reminiscences of his boyhood and early life and in his narration of the severe illness that overtook him two years ago while attending the funeral on Decoration Day of his uncle John.

"That illness had been slowly creeping upon for several years and the major surgical operation to which he then submitted left his nervous system very seriously shattered and his general health greatly impaired. As a result of this deplorable condition he suffered at times, very serious nervous tortures and mental depression.

"During a temporary aberration—the result not of sin but of disease—our brother slipped the moorings of earth and passed noiselessly as the footfall of a sunbeam out into the beautiful beyond and into the presence and keeping of the God of justice and mercy, whom he had loved and worshipped and served so faithfully and long.

"These bereaved relatives have the deepest sympathy of the entire community and the love of many true friends of the dear departed one. May they also have the unfailing love of the Heavenly Father the abiding peace of the Lord Jesus and the consolations of the Holy Spirit, the Divine Comforter, to whom we commend them in the bonds of Christian love, hope and faith."
